"GREETINGS FROM THE MISSIONS OF THE SOUTHWEST"

One of the mony picturesque missions located in the southwest. The Sponish Podres settled this areo long before the English and Dutch settlers colonized this part of the nation. These brave Podres ployed an importont role in teoching the Indians of the white mon's woys. Mony af these missians still stand os they did in the days af the Sponish Canquistodores. Some of the newer missions were plonned ofter these old missions.
